Mrs. Jacobs Named Woman Of Achievement By BPW

Mrs. Carrie Jacobs was honored Monday night, February 11, by Elba's Business and Professional Women's Club, as their Woman of Achievement for 1980. Mrs. Jacobs, an enthusiastic member of the club, received the title at a lovely Valentine Banquet, held at Holley's Cafe.

The party room was artistically decorated using the Valentine motif. An elegant pot of red rose buds occupied a special place of interest, and on the card were two words - Congratulations - Howard.

Mrs. Jacobs was fashionably dressed in a multi-colored chiffon gown, with Burgundy accessories. Gayle White, of Enterprise, presided for program-chairman. Myrtle Sellers, who is in Dothan with her husband, Chick, presented the flag to the honoree. The pledge to the flag was led by Mrs. Mable Lawless, and afterwards, Mr. Robert Holliman gave the invocation.

Gayle recognized and introduced the former Ladies of Achievement - Mrs. Catherine Mullins, Mrs. Mary Kingsdorf, Mrs. Mable Lawless, Mrs. Sybil Stivers, Mrs. Mary Dowling, and Mrs. Nellie Martin.

The Club presented each of these ladies with a lovely long stemmed red carnation.

A well-planned program of all phases of Carrie's life, achievements and accomplishments were revealed or related by the following people: Mrs. Quila Crosby and Mr. Clark Davis, Ft. Rucker, Reverend A. L. Strouder, Enterprise; Mr. Robert Holliman, Mrs. Aileen Ziglar, Mrs. Nellie Martin and Mrs. Sara English of Elba.

Carrie is a native of Coffee County. Her parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shepherd of near Enterprise. She is the wife of the late Joe Jacobs. Together they were the parents of eight children.

Two of the sons, Paul and Harry, were present for this memorable occasion.

After years of marriage, children and full-time employment at Ft. Rucker, Carrie launched out to further education. After four years of night classes at Enterprise Junior College, and Troy University Center, at Ft. Rucker, she was awarded a B.S. degree.

However, she continued her employment at Ft. Rucker. During the twenty-five years there she worked in many different areas of Civil Service, and received many superior performances, promotions and awards.

Carrie has now called it quits. She still is a very energetic and happy lady-not of leisure but of pleasure.

She is up and away on flying visits with the children, and finds time for church, civic and social events.

At home she's quite busy painting, writing poetry or engaged in creative crafts. Too, she has time for the grands.

Had you been present at Monday night's banquet, you would have been one of the host of friends and well-wishers sharing an enjoyable evening with the deserving and capable Carrie Jacobs!

The Elba City Council opened bids and purchased a new backhoe; agreed to proclaim March as "Clean-up Elba Month"; and Mayor Robert Folsom defended actions of city employees doing work on private property Folsom said belonged to him. Postponed was action on a request for a raise in firemen's pay.

Bids were opened on the purchase of a new tractor and backhoe and the low of four bids was the $24,700 by Elba Tractor Company. Other bidders were Luverne Tractor Company, Golden Tractor Company, and Joe Money Machinery Company, submitting a "No Bid."

The machine was purchased on a unanimous approval of a Council agreement to provide.

During 1979, according to the Alabama Department of Public Safety, there were 167 truck-related fatalities in Alabama -- of these, 155 were fatalities involving a large truck and another vehicle. Of this 155 total, 130 of the fatalities were occupants of the other vehicle.

"The Department is being flooded with complaints from the motoring public," said Cpl. Jack Weekly of the State Trooper Department, "concerning speeding trucks and other violations, such as following too closely, spilling loads, shifting loads, cutting in, running people off the road, etc."

"Although most truck drivers are safe, courteous drivers," Weekly continued, "this image is being spoiled by the few who refuse to obey the traffic laws and intimidate other drivers in smaller vehicles."

In order to gain a higher level of voluntary compliance with the national 55 mph speed laws and other traffic laws, the Department of Public Safety intends to take the following action on a state-wide basis to reduce truck accidents:

Use aircraft - motorcycles - pickup trucks - vans and other non-police vehicles - plain cars, with flashing lights, etc. by "Ghost Patrol" units; use roadblocks and inspection details for driver license and equipment checks.

The accompanying photograph shows a 1973 Ford van being pulled from the Pea River last Wednesday (February 13) about Noon. It was reported stolen from Timothy L. Auen of Ft. Rucker.

The van had apparently been driven into the water at Baldy's Bridge. Elba Rescue Squad divers checked the vehicle to see if anyone was inside prior to its being pulled from the river.

Council Proclaims Clean-Up & Opposes Railroad Closing

Cleo Hawkins motion to buy from the lowest bidder if it met specifications.

Mrs. Sandy Santa Rosa told the Council a local garden club was promoting an anti-litter campaign and requested assistance from the City of Elba. She pointed out that two existing ordinances allowed the city to enforce clean-up of lots, etc.

Police Chief Max Rayborn reported his department had arrested 23 people for littering in recent weeks (Dairy Queen, Big Bear parking lot) and would be continuing this week. He stated that any private citizen could sign a warrant against anyone seen littering, but they would have to appear in court as a witness.

Death Claims Area Newspaper Publisher

Robert D. (Bob) Burgess, long-time publisher of The Elba News, died Saturday in a Montgomery hospital following a heart attack. Burgess had been associated with the newspaper for many years as owner and publisher. He had watched the paper and community grow from the horse and buggy days to a modern, prospering entity.

The newspaper has experienced fantastic growth under standards set by the late Burgess, and continued by his only son, John, as the senior Burgess decreased his active participation in the work of editing a weekly newspaper.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Monday, February 18, from Rainer's Funeral Home Chapel, in Opp.

Fire Guts Home Tuesday

A late-night fire Tuesday night destroyed the home of Hazel Parker and her seven children. The family lived on Reynolds Street.

Fire officials were told the fire began in a room with no electric appliance on catch fire, no fireplace, etc., and the room was ablaze when discovered by a five-year-old child.

The fire blazed up again at 5:30 Wednesday morning, and the fire department responded, and the fire department responded, and the fire department responded.

BRAINSTORMS

WITH FERRIN COX

We noted with interest that the court-ordered elections in Pike County ended up with all the incumbents being re-elected. The suit and the court ruling contended that the people were not properly represented under the old plan. Now under the new plan, I am sure they are properly represented; but we are a little confused as to how the same people who were not giving proper service, can all of a sudden be all-OK after another election.

We reported several weeks ago that the Elba Water & Electric Board had hired Tom Goff of Ozark as a consultant. This is what we had understood at the meeting, but were later told they had agreed to talk with him on the matter. Later after some board members did talk with Goff, and at a special board meeting, it was decided not to retain Goff to assist in the continuing search for federal grants to extend the water lines to areas outside the city. Mayor Folsom told the board members they didn't need Goff to get the grant, but . . . where is it?

The county commissioners didn't act on a bill presented momentarily to them at their last meeting. Apparently the Probate Judge has authorized some Birmingham lawyer to draft a bill to impose a 1-cent sales tax in Coffee County without the knowledge of ANY commissioner. At least we have not found a single one admitting knowledge of the action. Nor will any commissioner admit having anything to do with constant reports that efforts are being made almost weekly to secure an option on land on Highway 84 for construction of a jail. This is in direct conflict to the vote of the Commission in December when they decided in a 5-1 vote to build any new jail behind the present courthouse.

The Elba city elections are getting nearer and nearer, with the present city government having only seven months or fourteen (14) more regular meetings unless they are re-elected. Rumors have been cropping up for a year or more about candidates for mayor, with about everyone but you and I rumored as a candidate. However, this week we have had two men tell us they would be in the race with Mayor Folsom. Also, Mr. Flournoy Whitman told us he had been urged to enter the race, but would not be a candidate. If just half the currently-rumored mayor candidates actually qualify, then a couple of us other folks could get together and decide the race! Funny though, not a single person has expressed to me yet editor any intention to run for the City Council.

The warm weather that hit the area this week will surely get us fair weather fishermen out waters. However, seems that many of the good fish have already been caught by the hardy souls that braved the weather when it was wet and cold.

We are continuing to hear good Teddy Kennedy jokes, but can't remember them long enough to repeat to you. Maybe he will contribute something after all, even if it is nothing but relief from the tensions of politics.

Published information for portions of the course were supplied by Food Marketing Institute (FMI). They also supplied each person taking the course a digest of rules and regulations. The digest includes rules and regulations to establish procedures for assuring safe and wholesome foods. The program is nationally certified by FMI and that M. U. S. T. is recognized by Federal and State health officials as a key program.

Draft Registration Is A Popular Idea In Congress

Senator Howell Heflin

In the aftermath of the Russian invasion of Afghanistan, President Carter called for the reinstatement of draft registration. I strongly support the President's call for resumption of Selective Service registration.

Our military strength and readiness has been slipping in recent years and we must take this step to improve our military posture.

Recent events as well as the fact that the All Volunteer concept appears to have fallen short of its goals in recruiting for the Armed Services make this step necessary.

Since 1974, when the draft ended, the Selective Service System has been on a "standby" posture with a skeleton staff of fewer than 100 people in the Washington headquarters and in six regional offices. Obviously, this "skeleton" staff will be inadequate when registration begins.

The President has estimated that resuming the draft registration will cost about $10 million in fiscal year 1980 and another $10 million in 1981.

The President has the authority to resume registration, including classification and examination if he deems it necessary. Any subsequent power to induct or draft, however, would have to come

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir:

I am a 23 year old male who would willingly die for this country. Draft me to fight, and I mean fight. I would also go to jail before letting the government register 18-year-old girls for military draft.

Jimmy Carter's proposal to draft our daughters, sisters and cousins is an example of government oppression unprecedented since slavery. Not since then has the hand of government so sought, totally without cause, to separate families in such an insidious way. Mr. Carter says that it will show the Russians our resolve, but that is a lie. He says that it is only fair, but that is a false excuse. Mr. Carter's advisors say that it is politically expedient to please the radical feminists, and that is the truth. Keeping himself in office is the only truth Mr. Carter knows.

Mr. President, you said that you would cut the size of government, and you added on. You said that you would balance the budget, and you increased the deficit. You said that you would control inflation, and you failed miserably. You told us to trust you and to make sacrifices, but you have done nothing but make excuses for your failures.

Mr. President, in the name of human rights you kissed and hugged the leader of the Russians, and then the Russians used deadly nerve gas on the hill people in Afghanistan. You rejected the cruise missile, MX missile, and B-1 Bomber, and now you want to single out Russians by drafting girls? Mr. President, any woman who so desires may be welcomed into the armed forces of this country. But you seem less interested in the defense of America than the extensive social programming of our citizens by a centralized government.

Sincerely,
Fob James III

Dear Ferrin,

We would like to see your newspaper to express our appreciation to the Elba Volunteer Fire Department which came to our rescue early this morning, February 6. Fortunately, the problem was under control when they arrived but it was a great relief to stand back and let them take over. The support they brought (even though it was nothing short of fantastic).

This is one more of those services that we all take for granted until we have an emergency and need help. I am sure that a lot of time, hard work, and personal sacrifice are necessary for us to have the fire department on call. We are very appreciative of this service and want to say "thank you" to all the volunteers who support it.

Sincerely,
Jim and Jean Rogers

Dear Sir:

I am descended from a Henry Allen Caldwell (my great grandfather) and his wife, Susan Beckham Caldwell, who moved to Elba from Pike County, Georgia, in the mid-1850's. Their son, Thomas J., died in Elba in 1860, and Henry himself died there in 1860 or 61. Susan remained alive and died in Elba on December 27, 1901.

My father, Chiles Walter Caldwell, was born in Elba in 1895. The Caldwell children were Martha O., Mary Celestia, Thomas J., Solomon S. (who died at the battle of Jonesborough in the Civil War), Louis A., Catherine, William Henry Harrison "Boss", Eliza A., Charles J., Robert Emmett (my grandfather), Samuel Beckham, Edward Leonidas, and Laura Ellen "Kate".

While much of the family moved gradually to Texas some of the family remained behind. My information indicates that "Kate" (Laura Ellen) married a Mr. W. E. and that their descendants still live in Coffee County. Two of the sons married "Misses", and one married a Cook, all families that I believe came from either Coffee, or Pike counties.

Several of us in Texas have been trying to sort out the information we have but have been unable to find any answers. I would appreciate hearing from anyone who is interested and is a member of any of these families.

Sincerely,
Charles E. Caldwell

Valentine Day Flowers For The One You Love ♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥♥

By: Lisa Ammons and Wanda Wambles

Valentine's Day this year was really special thanks to the Variety Cheerleaders. After much thoughtful consideration, the cheerleaders decided to buy carnations and sell them at school for that special love in someone's life. They were not only for the love in your life but also for special friends. Red carnations meant "I Love You," white carnations meant "I'd Like To Get To Know You Better," and pink carnations meant that you had a secret admirer. The cheerleaders started selling carnations Friday morning, February 8, and sold them until three o'clock on

National FFA Week Is February 16-23

Members of the Zion Chapel Chapter join with nearly 495,000 other FFA members in the United States in celebrating National FFA WEEK which starts February 16.

Throughout the WEEK the state's 379 chapters are planning activities to support the theme FFA - Preparing For Progress.

The traditions of FFA have held strong and produced a mighty work force for food and fiber to meet the needs of our nation and the world. Successful agricultural leaders of today are the testimony. Vocational agricultural education is an American success story of Learning By Doing.

National FFA WEEK always includes George Washington's birthday in observance of his leadership in promoting scientific farming practices. Washington is considered the patron saint of the FFA and has come to symbolize the FFA Treasurer.

According to President Mitch Maddox, the Zion Chapel Chapter will put up FFA posters in local businesses in observance of FFA WEEK. They have already distributed FFA balloons pens to Chapter members. They will also put a commemorative bulletin board in the hall of the high school.

Org. started in 1928, the FFA promotes leadership, cooperation and citizenship among high school vocational agricultural students. Vocational agriculture education in high school prepares students for careers in agricultural production, marketing, processing and services.

These young men deserve a large amount of credit and the rest of the Zion Chapel Rebels would like to take this opportunity to say "Thanks for a job well done!"

Zion Chapel Is Looking Forward To A.E.A.

By: Kathy Sawyer
To most high school students A. E. A. means beach time! Some students are fortunate enough to be able to spend the whole week of A. E. A. in P. C., while some less fortunate ones settle for just a day. But that's fine, I'll guarantee you that they always make the best of that one day.

last vacation of the school year, many seniors realize now more than ever that graduation is drawing near. But that doesn't stop them from enjoying themselves, this is not the time for sadness.

Now that this vacation is less than a month away it is time to start making plans for a "safe" holiday.

We caution all of you that are getting to make this trip to be extremely careful about such things as the drive down and avoiding undesirable influences. We insist that it is possible to have a good time without drugs or alcohol.

Being spotlighted as our staff member for this week is Mrs. Lela Wilson, Zion Chapel's secretary.

Mrs. Wilson was a substitute teacher at Zion Chapel from 1947 to 1967. She then worked as a Library Aide for two years. In 1969 she settled into the role of secretary and has done this ever since.

Mrs. Wilson and her husband Rufus, have one daughter, who lives in Dothan and works in Quality Control Sundry Land. Her son Ray, is a Physician at Southern Research Institute in Birmingham. Mrs. Wilson has one grandchild, Brad Sullivan, who resides in Gordo, Alabama.

In her spare time, Mrs. Wilson enjoys fishing, cooking, crocheting, and reading. She is a member at Zion Chapel Baptist Church where she sings in the choir.

French Club Participates In Activities

Le Cercle de Francais has been actively engaged in several projects in the last few days. We entered the sign contest sponsored by the Beta Club as an integral part of the Beta Club Feature Program. Scott English, Todd McCollough, Tammy Finner, Candy Berry, and Steve Cowart spent several hours painting the sign which placed second in the contest.

Students in all three classes drew names several days before Valentine's Day and each made a French valentine for the person whose name he drew. Also, the French 1 students made a valentine written in English for residents of the Elba Nursing Home. In French II assigned groups of seven made birthday cards for those nursing home residents who celebrated birthdays this month. All cards were discussed by members of the fifth period class who assisted in serving refreshments for the monthly birthday party at the nursing home.

The French Club is also making plans for their annual convention. This year's convention will be held March 28-29 at the University of Alabama. Scott English is responsible for the club scrapbook which will be entered in competition. Steve Cowart, Todd McCollough, Scott English, Tammy Finner, and Mollie Walker are working on the exhibit. Other students will be assigned to work on the exhibit at a later date. Mark Bowers, Level II, and Michelle Cox, Level I, will enter individual competition. Angie Holt, Erwin Gunnells, and Mark Ribbarg will enter Level I Group Competition. Steve Cowart, Candy Berry, Tammy Finner, and Sheri Smart will enter Level II Group Competition.

Valentine Party Honors Children At Woodland Grove

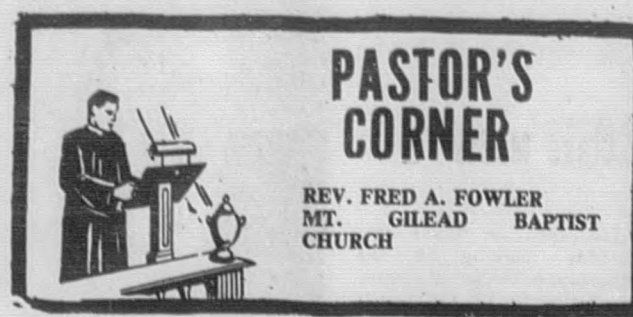

The children of Woodland Grove Baptist Church were honored with a Valentine Party on Tuesday night, February 12, at the church. The children were ages pre-school through sixth grade.

Rev. Billy Gregory gave a short devotional and then a delicious meal was enjoyed by the children and grownups present.

The tables were decorated in the Valentine theme, with place cards decorated with red Cupids. A "Happy Valentine" sign was placed on a wall of the fellowship hall where the party was held.

The meal consisted of grilled hamburgers, potato chips and Valentine cake and cupcakes. The children later played games, and each received a Valentine container filled with party favors.

Those present were: Renae Owens, Bob Johnson, Scott Brown, Jason Johnson, Anna Brooks, Susan Johnson, Stephanie Goodson, Jamie Nolin, Pam Nolin, Jennifer English, Brent Goodson, Mark Moseley, Michael Moseley.

SALE PRICED 4 DAYS ONLY TUESDAY NIGHT SPECIAL
The advertising world is bidding for your attention every day by newspaper ads and by radio and TV commercials. Each advertiser is trying to convince you to choose his product. It is up to you to sort out the true values from the cheap come-ons.

In this article, (with the help of the faith prayer and tract league), I'm going to tell you about an offer that is absolutely genuine. There are no gimmicks or sales tricks. The only decision you need to make is whether or not to accept this offer. Here is the offer, along with some answers to questions you may have about it:

SPECIAL OFFER: ETERNAL LIFE
WHO MAKES THIS OFFER? "God commends his love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us." (Romans 5:8)

WHY DO I NEED IT? "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23)

WHAT IS ETERNAL LIFE? "Who are moved by the spirit of God and love the things which are revealed by the word of God." (Romans 8:14)

WHY DOES GOD MAKE SUCH AN OFFER? "In this manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten son into the world, that he might live through him." (1 John 4:9)

WHAT IS THE GUARANTEE? "I give unto them eternal life, and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand." (John 10:28)

Elba Tigers Pound Laverne & Daleville

The Elba High basketball team broke their losing streak last week and have now claimed 3 big wins in a row! The Tigers have played hard all season, and always gave 100 percent, but were just snakebitten during the middle of the season and couldn't buy a win. To come back and win three straight games after losing 11 straight is tough, but the boys never gave up, and proved they could win. The team and Coach Kirkland deserve a lot of credit for hanging in despite the long losing spell, and their late season flurry should give them a winning attitude for next year.

LAVERNE 52

Elba opened the fourth quarter in a press and broke open a close game by scoring 8 unanswered points as they buried the Laverne tigers 64-52, in Elba.

The two rivals battled on near even terms early in the game, but it was Elba's Glen Johnson who put the Tigers on top, as he hit 10 first quarter points to spark Elba to a 15-10 advantage. Laverne began to gain the upper hand in the second quarter and closed to within 20-24 at the half.

The Tigers got their running game cranked up in the third quarter, and pulled into a 43-36 lead, and then went into a press in the fourth quarter and put the game out of reach. Laverne fouled in an attempt to get back in the game, but Elba hit 9 of 12 free throws in the final stanza to preserve the win.

Glen Johnson hit 24 points to pace Elba, while Don Horstead added 16 points and grabbed 10 rebounds. Artie Dixon hit 17 points to lead Laverne.

I don't know how many of you watched the Daytona 500 on TV last Sunday, but if you didn't, the driver who finished 10th was none other than Jody Ridley. Ridley has won many stock car races at the track down at Kinston; picked up a sponsor this year, and is a full-time performer on the NASCAR circuit. Keep an eye on him, folks, because Jody Ridley can drive!

The Men's and Boys' basketball leagues wrapped up their seasons last week, and both leagues enjoyed very successful seasons. All the players had a good time, and next year's leagues should be bigger and better than ever.

The Elba Tiger football team will get back to work next week as they prepare for what should be a very exciting season. Elba did lose some talented people last year, but a lot of top performers return, and Coach Wood has reported that spring training will include a lot of hard work. If you get a chance, go out and watch a practice -- it's next year's club at work!

New Brockton Gamecocks Stun 4A Northview 64-57

The 2A New Brockton Gamecocks pulled off the biggest upset in the state last week when they defeated the 4A Northview Cougars 64-57, in New Brockton.

The win capped Brockton's record to 16-4, while the loss left Northview with a 15-8 slate.

The Gamecocks came out in a zone defense in an attempt to slow down Northview's high scoring Cougars, and the plan worked almost to perfection!

Brockton worked the ball on offense looking for a good shot, and got the ball inside to take a 13-10 lead after one quarter.

The Gamecocks' lead went to 5 points in the second stanza, but the Cougars would not let Brockton pull away, and at the half New Brockton clung to a 27-24 lead.

Northview rallied to go ahead by 1 point in the third

Reach 100 Win

Level

Ricky Nolen of Five Points and Buddy Faircloth of Wicksburg have reached similar coaching milestones-100 career basketball victories in six seasons.

Nolen, coaching at alma mater after playing college basketball at Samford, reached the coveted plateau when Five Points captured a 78-67 triumph over Beaufort behind Tony Oliver's 15 points and Allen Higgins' 14.

Five Points, 18-6, is trying for its third straight 20-victory season under Nolen's tutelage.

Faircloth's Wicksburg team, 7-12, started slowly but three victories last week were more than enough to boost the Louisville native's career victory total to the century mark.

Wicksburg, which has posted three 20-win seasons in a row under the Troy State grad, was paced last week by Lavon Ford's 60-points in three games.

Faircloth's club has five players named Johnson—Dannie, DeWayne, Tony, Jerome, and Dennis.

ALL AROUND COFFEE COUNTY

County Farm Agent TOM CASADY

CATFISH

Quite a bit of interest is being shown in the prospective catfish market in Coffee County. Plans are being completed for a meeting on producing, harvesting, and marketing catfish.

At the March 4 meeting, Dr. John Jensen of Auburn is going to demonstrate how to harvest catfish without draining the pond. He will also discuss a lot of other factors involved in catfish production and marketing. If you are interested in this program, call me at 894-5596 so that I can send you a letter of invitation to this meeting.

If you're just interested in producing catfish, and not interested in commercial marketing, you are also invited.

NEW

A new, quick kill material for rats has been developed. The brand name of this new poison is Talon. Talon is used in several different bait products for controlling rats and mice in houses and other buildings. Talon is an anti-coagulant much as the long-used warfarin. The big advantage of Talon is that a single feeding gets the results. Warfarin-based materials have to be eaten over a period of time to be effective. Test results show that a single feeding of only 2 grams of the bait will kill a big adult Norway rat. Be sure to keep this material away from your children. Follow directions on the label.

PRUNING TREES

The last half of February is a good time to prune peach and plum trees. We used to think it was better to do this in early January, but late research shows that mid to late February pruning is more desirable here in South Alabama. Incidentally, if you haven't done it already, you need to put your dormant spray of oil emulsion on peach and plum trees. This oil will prevent two or three different insects from damaging your trees. We have the new spray schedules for peaches, pears, apples and plums at our office. Just call us and we will mail you a copy.

Tips On Pecan Production

BY: BRENDA M. ALLEN
County Agent - ANR

When Hurricane Frederic hit the coast of Alabama last fall, it left the pecan industry in a state of devastation. The storm destroyed 60 percent of the pecan trees in the area. It will be the 21st century before these trees can be replaced and brought back into production. The remaining trees were so badly damaged, it will be six to seven years before they will be in production again. For these reasons, care of pecan trees around the home and the renovation of old orchards is more important than ever.

There is also a great need for the establishment of new orchards. When pecan trees are planted, they are expected to remain on the land from 20 to 40 years or longer. There are a number of factors to be considered in successful pecan production. First, you need the proper soil and location. Although pecans are adapted to many different soils, they do best on deep, fertile, well-drained sandy loam soils. Avoid heavy, mottled clay soils with poor drainage.

The best site for growing pecans is one with a gradual slope which allows air movement to lower areas outside the pecan orchard. This causes faster drying after heavy dew, fog and rain. It also helps prevent the spread of certain pecan diseases. Site preparation is extremely important to growing pecans. You should spend whatever time is necessary to thoroughly prepare the location before planting. There are six important fertilizer elements associated with good pecan production. Soil test to find out the correct amount of calcium, phosphorus, potassium, magnesium, nitrogen and zinc you need. Follow the recommendations printed on the result sheet. The soil test results are particularly important in indicating the levels of potassium, magnesium and phosphorus. These nutrients can be as harmful when too much is present as when not enough is available. If the soil test indicates that you

FERTILIZE PECANS

Nitrogen is an element that supplies "grow power" to pecans. It takes 6-9 inches of annual twig growth to produce nuts. Go ahead and apply your Nitrogen now to get good growth.

Why fertilize now? You need Nitrogen available in the roots of the trees before growth begins. When Nitrogen is available early in the growing season, a greater percentage of flower buds set nuts.

How much fertilizer do you need around your pecans? For trees 20-25 years old, you can use about 25 pounds of ammonium nitrate per tree. For younger trees, use 1 1/2 pounds of ammonium nitrate per tree.

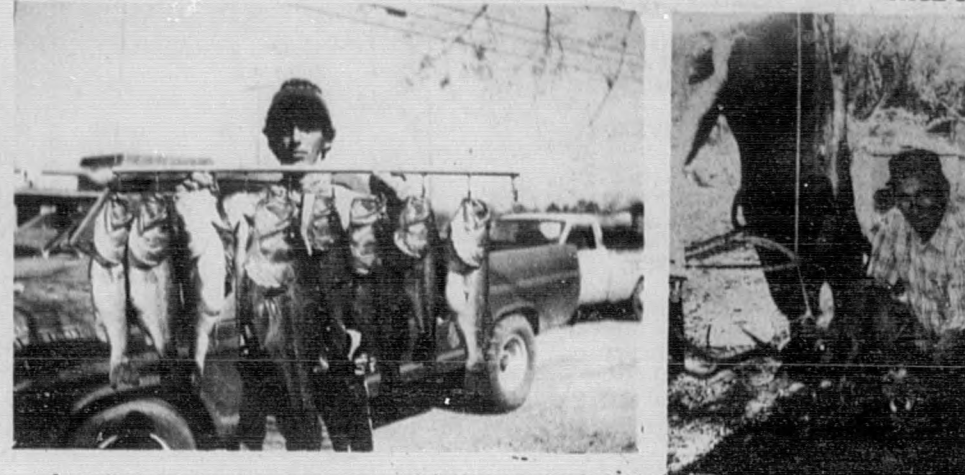

You can get complete information on pecan fertilization by getting in touch with me at the Extension office.

KEEPING AUBURN SPECIAL

Most people know that the Extension Office (county and county agents) is a part of Auburn University. In fact, Auburn has an instruction division which includes all the students. Then it has the research division and the Extension division. We are the Extension division.

I was impressed with a statement by Dr. Harry M. Philpott, president of Auburn. He said, "The most negative thing about our funding problems is that we are shortchanging our students. Higher education is one of the things in Alabama that we can point to with pride. We have some very high quality academic programs in our state, yet we must understand that it takes many years to develop quality academic programs, and only a short period of neglect will sink it into mediocrity. In spite of the problems we face, I am convinced that Auburn's best years are just ahead. The only thing which could keep the university from achieving its goals is a lack of understanding and poor financing."

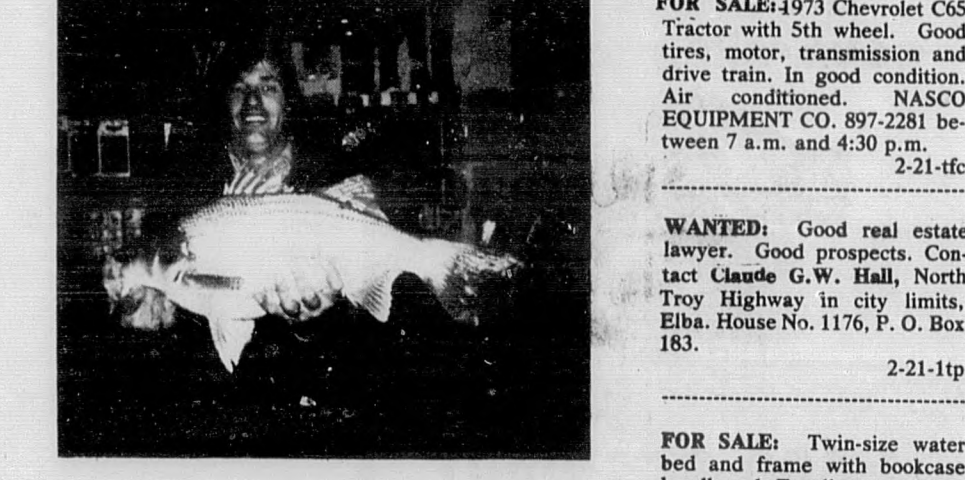

Incidentally, if you haven't done it already, you need to put your dormant spray of oil emulsion on peach and plum trees. This oil will prevent two or three different insects from damaging your trees. We have the new spray schedules for peaches, pears, apples and plums at our office. Just call us and we will mail you a copy.

SAYS SERVICES MUST BE CUT

Ball Fails To Get More County Funds

The Coffee County Commission met in regular session on Monday, March 25, at the courthouse in Elba, and heard County Health Officer Kenneth Ball report that cutbacks would have to be made in the County Health Department by March 5 or the department would face the possibility of being shut down.

"We lack $34,000 in our budget to continue the present services," said Ball, "and it leaves us with two alternatives -- 1. Begin to cut back services, and 2. Continue all the existing programs until funds run out and then shut down. We must make cutbacks by March 5 that will save us $35,000, and that means terminating programs and laying off 4 or 5 employees. We will try to keep our most important programs active and serve the people the best we can."

Ball met with the Commission back on February 11, and asked them to impose a 3-mill Ad Valorem tax to raise money for his department. The Commission failed to vote in the tax, and this non-action resulted in Ball's appearance this week.

"The total cost of operating the Health Department is $952,000 annually," added Ball, "and the local funding is only $16,000. I have looked high and low for Federal matching funds, and they just can't be found. If the county can't give us some money, we have no choice but to cut services."

In an unrelated matter, Ball stated that 450 residents may soon face prosecution for violating Health Department regulations on the disposal of solid waste.

"We are ready to mail 450 certified letters to county residents that are violating the regulations," stated Ball, "and they will then have 14 days to act or face prosecution. County residents have 3 choices concerning the disposal of solid waste: 1. Use the county garbage program, 2. Haul garbage to the landfill, and 3. Get a permit to bury the garbage. Residents must choose one of these methods or they'll be brought before the judge!"

In other action at Monday's meeting, the Commission:

Approved a request to locate a new cemetery at the Pine Grove Church of God off County Road 43;

Authorized the commissioners to attend a legislative meeting in Montgomery on February 27 & 28;

Instructed Asst. Engineer Tim Hornsby to get quotes from local auctioneers on holding an auction of old Highway Department equipment;

Was told that each separate county commission should decide what constitutes a public and private road in their county;

Agreed to sign a resolution stating it would repair a bridge on the Airport Road in Elba;

Again heard Asst. Engineer Tim Hornsby ask to let the Highway Department lease a piece of machinery to the landfill (Hornsby said his department will soon need the borrowed equipment and he wanted to know if the machine would be available);

Heard Hornsby report he had written a letter of apology to the County School Board over a misunderstanding involving a recent problem with misuse of the county's radio;

Reported the Forestry Department in the county might soon be discontinued, and that the Ranger and equipment would be sent to another county;

Appointed Sheriff Brice Paul to work with the problems of the handicapped, and help in dispensing revenue sharing funds in that area;

Was told by Commissioner Don Smith that the Mt. Pleasant voting house needed minor repairs and a new coat of paint;

Was informed a new door was needed at the Pleasant Ridge voting house;

Heard Probate Judge James Sawyer report a special school would be held in Enterprise and Elba to teach poll officials new procedures;

Agreed to lower the garbage pickup rate for churches to $2.00 a month;

Agreed to allow residents to place plastic garbage bags in cans to prevent dogs from scattering trash; and

Was told the Advisory Board would meet on Friday, February 29, at the courthouse in Enterprise at 10:00.

This newspaper carried a photo last week of the activities and Folsom said the payment was in response to our "hell-raising."

The receipt was for 1 quart of diesel fuel and the amount was 23 cents.

Mayor Robert Folsom presented to this newspaper a photocopy of a City of Elba receipt dated February 27, 1980, for supplies he said were used by city equipment while working at the Block Plant Warehouse.

The first item for discussion was the proposed purchase of 52 acres of land from the Mt. Perry Baptist Association. Folsom told the Council he had to give the group an answer on the next day.

Councilman D.M. English reported he had talked to some who felt the land was worth $300 to $400 an acre, and he wanted to know some estimate on the cost of preparing the land for use.

Councilman Cleo Hawkins pointed out that in three or four months the city would be adding $100,000 a year to payments. He was referring to the already-agreed-upon purchase of the Elba Exchange Bank Building for a city hall purchase of Dr. Kinney's office for a library, and a previously-signed agreement to furnish up to $75,000 a year for expansion of the local hospital and nursing home.

After the discussion died down, and no motion was made to make an offer, Mayor Folsom moved on to another item. Some conclusion had developed on the exact method of paying Dr. Kinney for the purchase of his clinic. The Council was told it would be paid for in five equal payments, with the first $10,000 payment being made at the time the deeds were signed. All agreed this was satisfactory.

The Council voted to underwrite the 20% difference on the purchase of a station wagon for use by the Nutrition Program. Bids had been opened earlier and low bidder was Nichols Oldsmobile-Pontiac on a Pontiac wagon, according to Folsom. He noted there was a $500 factory rebate coming later from General Motors; thus the cost to the city wouldn't exceed $920 and could be less if expected donations were made. The 80% was paid for with a federal grant.

Councilman Charles Kennett asked, "Can we afford to buy this land at $50 per acre?"

They brought related items for sharing and displayed them.

On Friday, each student dressed in the costume to represent his or her career interest.
